Janet Hurley, MD, sworn in as TAFP treasurer

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS — Janet Hurley, MD, of Whitehouse, Texas, was sworn in as treasurer of the Texas Academy of Family Physicians during the 2015 Annual Session and Primary Care Summit in The Woodlands. Hurley assumed her duties Nov. 14 at the TAFP Business and Awards Lunch.

Hurley is a physician at the Trinity Clinic in Whitehouse, Texas. She was awarded her medical degree by the Texas A&M Health Science Center College of Medicine and completed her postgraduate training with the Family Practice Residency Program at the University of Texas Health Center at Tyler in Tyler, Texas.

She previously served as chair of TAFP's Commission on Health Care Services and Managed Care, Section on Leadership Development, and Section on the Medical Home. Hurley is also a member of the Texas Medical Association, the American Medical Association, the Smith County Medical Society, and the Christian Medical and Dental Society.

Family physicians like Hurley are qualified to work in all major medical areas and trained to treat more than 90 percent of all cases they encounter. Family physicians care for patients of all ages.

During her year as TAFP treasurer, Hurley will serve as chair of the Finance Committee to review the Academy's income and expenses. She will work with other officers to lead the Academy: President Ajay Gupta, MD, of Austin; President-elect Tricia Elliott, MD, of Galveston; Vice President Javier "Jake" Margo, Jr., MD, of Rio Grande City; and Parliamentarian Rebecca Hart, MD, of League City.

The Texas Academy of Family Physicians is the premier membership organization dedicated to uniting the family doctors of Texas through advocacy, education and member services, and empowering them to provide a medical home for patients of all ages. It has 33 local chapters and is a chapter of the American Academy of Family Physicians. Visit www.tafp.org for more information.
